

Vice Rector and Deputy of LPPM Visited The Scientific Writing Training

Starting from September 30th until October 4th, 2014 at IPB International Convention Center, Department of Biology held Scientific Writing Training for its Lecturers and others in the Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences. We are very happy that Vice Rector for Research and Cooperation, Prof. Dr. Ir. Anas Miftah Fauzi, M.Sc; and Deputy of Research and Community Services Institute (LPPM), Prof.Dr. Agik Suprayogi, M.Sc., visited the training at day 3 and day 4, respectively. We hope that the same training can be held at the university level in the future.
