

One of Fadhli Sofyan's Activity as a Biodiversity Warrior

Thursday 29 October 2015, Fadhli Sofyan, one of the students of the Department of Biology Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences, IPB, had the opportunity to speak in front of project launching event of the Green Education Project Initiatives (GEI) Indonesia at Atamerica, Pacific Place Mall, Central Jakarta. He spoke about Indonesia biodiversity as representative of the Biodiversity Warrior Movement that initiated by the Indonesian Biodiversity Foundation (Yayasan KEHATI).

Green Education Initiative (GEI) is one of the projects that won grants from the YSEALI (Young South East Asian Leaders Initiatives) Seeds for the Future 2014. The YSEALI is a platform of young leaders in the ASEAN region in order to initiate the change among youth movement. The platform is initiated and supported by the United States Government. Starting this November, the GEI Indonesia project will be implemented in Gunung Kidul, Yogyakarta.

In addition, there is also another speaker spoke in the event, such as, Ace Mark Aniceto (Project Leader, GEI Philippines), Rida Nurafiati (Project Leader, GEI Indonesia), Bambang Sutrisno (ASEAN Youth Volunteer Programme Alumnus), and Shifa Fauziyyah (Indonesian Coral Reef Foundation).