

Welcome to Our New Graduate Student!

The Department of Biology organized an official Welcoming Ceremony for all new Graduate Student on Monday, September 4, 2017. In the event took place at RK Bio 1.2, all new Graduate Student (Master Degree and Doctoral Degree) from Study Program of Microbiology, Animal Biosciences, and Plant Biology gathered to get information about Department of Biology.

During the Welcome Ceremony, head of the Department, Dr. Ir. Miftahudin M.Si., officially welcomes the new student and explained the Department organization structure, the building, and other information. He said that the new student chooses the right path to continue his/her graduate life at the Department of Biology. Department of Biology known as one of reputable Department in Bogor Agricultural University (IPB), he added. He also introduced study program heads and the faculty who attended the Welcome Ceremony.

After the head speaks, the new student introduced by the Department Graduate Student Organization, named Forscabio IPB. In the end, the student was divided into 3 groups based on their study program to get more information about academic life in three separated room.